Bernadette Montoya became the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management at New Mexico State University in June 2011. Her career as an educator has been comprehensive: she has worked with first graders to college students and now serves at the highest level of university administration.

She started her career at NMSU as a work-study student at the NMSU-Grants Campus. After teaching first graders, she returned to higher education and the Student Affairs arena at NMSU-Grants in 1992. Since then, she has worked at NMSU-Dona Ana and at the main campus in Las Cruces. Her roles have included being Coordinator for Academic Advisement, Assistant Campus Director, Campus Student Services Officer, and Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management.

In her down time, she enjoys cooking, reading, and playing music.
