

TERRY SIMMONS

B.A., M.A., Ed.S.

Dean, Service Occupations

Gateway Technical College-Wisconsin

Burlington, Wisconsin, USA

Facilitator Since: 2008

Foundation Academy Graduate: WLDI 1999

Terry M. Simmons is the Dean of Service Occupations at Gateway Technical College in Burlington, Wisconsin. In his twenty years of post-secondary education, Terry has served as a special assistant to the President of Gateway Technical College; Vice President of Student Services; Dean of Student Support; Associate Dean of General Education and Academic Development; Minority Recruitment and Retention Specialist; Director of a Correctional Education College Programs; Career Counselor; and as an instructor. Terry has amassed years of experience in managing and supervising educational staff and faculty at all levels. He is a 1999-2000 (WLDI) Foundation Leadership Academy graduate and has been a member of the Chair Academy's facilitation team since 2008.

Terry obtained his B.A. in Criminal Justice from Northern Michigan University, M.A. in Counselor Education from Northeastern Illinois University, Ed.S in counselor Education from Northern Illinois University, and is currently ABD working towards the completion of his Ed.D in Counselor Education and Higher Education Administration through Northern Illinois University. Terry lives in Burlington, Wisconsin with his wife Susan and their children, Olivia and Adam.